

FAASTeam and NOAA-NWS presents:

Aviation Weather From the Experts!

Presented by the FAASTeam and Aviation Meteorologists from the National Weather Service. This exclusive program will reveal just how weather information is captured, how forecasts are developed and disseminated. How does summer weather impact safety and aircraft performance? FAASTeam Program Manager (FPM) Jim Adams will discuss several weather related accidents and National Weather Service (NWS) Meteorologists will present an informative weather program. Refreshments provided.

Directions: I-95, exit 30 to CT 113- Lordship Blvd. to Great Meadow Rd.
